

REFERENCE CENTER LIBRARY

CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL

25X1

CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE GROUP
INTELLIGENCE REPORT

COUNTRY Korea

25X1

DATE:

SUBJECT Military Information: Peace Preservation Corps
Officers' Schools

[Redacted]

Dist. January 1973

25X1

PAGES 1

ORIGIN

[Redacted]

SUPPLEMENT

[Large Redacted Area]

25X1

1. Young men in North Korea between the ages of 17 and 25 are being recruited for the North Korean Peace Preservation Corps Officers' Schools, but no compulsory conscription program has as yet been put into effect.
2. There are more than 3600 North Korean troops attached to the Peace Preservation Corps Officers' School at South Sinuiju, a few kilometers from Sinuiju (Shinuiju) (124-24.40-06) proper. Eighty per cent of these troops are from North and South Hamgyong (Hamgyo) Provinces.
3. Approximately one-half of the instructors at the South Sinuiju Peace Preservation Corps Officers' School are Soviet Army officers.
4. The members of the South Sinuiju Peace Preservation Corps Officers' School are actively engaged in propaganda work, especially at the meetings of the various social organizations and of the People's Assembly in Sinuiju.

This document contains information affecting the national defense of the United States within the meaning of the Espionage Act, 50, U.S.C. 31 and 32 as amended. Its transmission or the revelation of its contents in any manner to an unauthorized person is prohibited by law.

Document No. 603
 NO CHANGE in Class.
 DECLASSIFIED
 Class. CHANGED TO: TS S G
 DDA Memo, 4 Apr 77
 Auth: DDA REG. 77/1763
 Date: 3 MAY 1978 By: 016

CLASSIFICATION CONFIDENTIAL

CONFIDENTIAL